THE HISTORY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

The city of Boston, situated on a neck of land between the harbor and the bay, was first settled by a few Englishmen in 1630. It was then a small town, but it grew rapidly, and by 1690 it had become one of the largest cities in the colonies. In 1776, it was the scene of the Battle of the Clouds, and in 1780 it was the site of the Siege of Fort Mifflin. In 1800, it was the center of the abolitionist movement, and in 1860 it was the headquarters of the Union Army. In 1900, it was the site of the World's Fair, and in 1920 it was the center of the Prohibition movement. In 1940, it was the site of the attack on Pearl Harbor, and in 1960 it was the center of the civil rights movement. In 1980, it was the site of the Boston Marathon bombing, and in 2000 it was the site of the World Trade Center attack. In 2010, it was the site of the Boston Marathon bombing, and in 2015 it was the site of the World Trade Center attack.
